

Dialogue for Life and Reconciliation

DLR

Dear Friends,
It is now time to stick together and help families
by either donating, renovating, or supporting heartbroken people. If you can volunteer or help in any way please contact us.

Some of our latest PROJECTS

Sustainable Network for Religious Leaders in the North

The project aimed at building a sustainable network for the religious leaders in the North of Lebanon. More than 35 religious leaders, Muslims and Christians, from different areas in the North, gathered together through several trainings, meetings, and bridge building activities.

The religious leaders came up, through this project, with several community service activities targeting diverse community groups.

DLR Annual Inter-Religious Academy

The Annual Interreligious Academy seeks to foster and facilitate the interaction and communication between the different faith groups in the country especially the younger generation, with the aim of creating a dynamic dialogue and mutual understanding among various Lebanese youth coming from different communities, backgrounds, regions, and religions.

Annunciation Day - March 25th

Annunciation Day, celebrated on March 25 each year, is a special holiday in Lebanon owing its uniqueness to being the only religious holiday celebrated by both Christians and Muslims.
